Week of Prayer for Christian Unity January 18 – 25, 2018

The theme for the 2018 Week of Prayer for Christian Unity comes to us from the Caribbean region: "Your right hand, O LORD, glorious in power" (Exodus 15:6).

The contemporary Caribbean is deeply marked by the dehumanizing project of colonial exploitation. In their aggressive pursuit of mercantile gains, the colonisers codified brutal systems which traded human beings and their forced labour.

Today, Caribbean Christians of many different traditions see the hand of God active in the ending of enslavement. It is a uniting experience of God's saving action which brings freedom. The Caribbean ecumenical team chose the song of Moses and Miriam (Ex 15:1-21) — a song of triumph over oppression — as the motif of this year's Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: JANUARY 14, 2018
CELEBRATING THE YEAR OF MINISTRY

Second Day of the Lord in Ordinary Time

Reflections by Rev. Wilson Andrade, CSC

We continue on the theme of Baptism of Jesus on this Second Sunday in the ordinary time. It is in Baptism we begin our faith journey so we continue our journey with the mission of Church entrusted by Christ. What is the Mission of Christ? John puts it poetically and we during every Eucharist express it intensely before receive the Holy Communion – “Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the World” (Jn. 1:29). The mission of Jesus was to “take away the sin,” Jesus did that by being born like us, lived like us, died and rose again – to give us the hope of eternal life. What happens to us when the “sin is taken away?” We become the children of God. We become sons and daughters of God, joining the one family of God – “who is love”.

Baptism gives us the grace to become the Children of God and to experience in an intimate way the love of God. So we continue to experience that call of God who calls us as St. Paul writes: “called to be saints, together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.” (1 Cor. 1:1). We are called to be Saints, Saints who are in communion with one another. So let’s help one another to become saints in the church.

The Church after the Second Vatican Council invites every baptized Christian to respond to the “call to holiness.” Being good is not enough, we call called to be Holy, Saintly, going a step further being grace-filled people, being people in love with God and one another, called to holy, saintly children of God. Only then the mission of Jesus completes with our openness to the grace and power “to become Children of God.”

The Year of Ministry - 2018

“Many Ministries for one mission of Jesus Christ” (Cf. 1 Cor. 12)

As we began the Year of the Ministry, I would like to invite all the members of the Parish Community of St. Ann and Native Peoples’ Mission to reflect on our Baptism call to become witness of God’s love and join in the ministry of the church of bringing Gospel of Jesus Christ to all. We are grateful for 30 different ministries we share with the community as each one their own gifts and talents to share. If you would like to be a part of any one of the following ministries, please contact the office or email me, so we can effectively serve our Parish.
