St. Michael's Homes, founded by members of the Sisters of St. Joseph over 40 years ago, provides supports to men struggling with addiction. Their focus is on those men who are most marginalized by their affliction, including those with long histories of substance use, homelessness and social isolation. They now have four homes providing Treatment and Housing for men who are attempting to recover from their struggles with addiction. Mr. David Bruce, Director of Operations of St. Michael's Homes, will make a presentation this weekend. To find out more please call (416) 926-8267 or visit the website at www.stmichaelshomes.org
