2018 Parish Ministry Conference

The Office of Formation for Discipleship is launching a new conference aimed at helping to inspire parish ministers to better serve their parish communities. It is called “Be Disciples. Make Disciples” and will be held on Saturday, October 20, 2018, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at St. Basil-the-Great College School, (20 Starview Lane, North York). Over 12 ministry workshops will be offered, with time for ongoing formation, personal reflection, faith sharing, fellowship, networking and the celebration of the Eucharist. The Mass celebrant and keynote speaker will be His Eminence Thomas Cardinal Collins. Registration is now open. The cost to attend is $15 per person (early bird rate for people who register before August 31, 2018) and $25 per person thereafter. The registration fee includes entry to the conference, lunch and light refreshments. For registration and more information please visit: www.archtoronto.org/disciples.

ShareLife 2018

Living the Gospel by providing for those in need.

“Without you, ShareLife could not fulfill its mission to Live the Gospel by providing for those in need. Together we are making a real difference! My prayer is that we may continue to respond to God's love by going forth from ourselves to seek the good of others.” —Thomas Cardinal Collins, Archbishop of Toronto. Please consider making a sacrificial gift to ShareLife through your parish or at sharelife.org. Thank you for your generosity.

Prayer and Life Workshops

Today, July 1, we welcome Nadine Lubin who will talk about the Prayer and Life Workshops to be starting at St. Ann Parish in mid-August. She will be available after mass to sign-up anyone who may be interested in participating in the workshops.

Parish ministries on summer break

Please note that the parish's Children's Liturgy, Handmaids of the Lord, Seniors Bingo Group and Development & Peace ministries are on summer break and will resume in September.

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: JULY 1, 2018
CELEBRATING THE YEAR OF MINISTRY

Fearful Hoarders

“Once there was a group of people who surveyed the resources of the world and said to each other: “How can we be sure that we have enough in hard times? We want to survive whatever happens. Let us start collecting food and knowledge so that we are safe and secure when a crisis occurs.”

So they started hoarding, so much and so eagerly that other people protested and said, “You have much more than you need, while we don’t have enough to survive. Give us part of your wealth!” But the fearful hoarders said: “No, no, we need to keep this in case of an emergency, in case things go bad for us too, in case our lives are threatened.” But the others said, “We are dying now; please give us food and materials and knowledge to survive. We can’t wait, we need it now!”

Then the fearful hoarders became even more fearful, since they became afraid that the poor and hungry would attack them. So they said to one another: “Let us build walls around our wealth so that no stranger can take it from us.” They started erecting walls so high that they could not even see anymore whether there were enemies outside the walls or not!

As their fear increased they told each other: “Our enemies have become so numerous that they may be able to tear down our walls. Our walls are not strong enough to keep them away. We need to put explosives and barbed wire on top of the walls so that nobody will dare to even come close to us. But instead of feeling safe and secure behind their armed walls they found themselves trapped in the prison they had built with their own fear.”

Henri Nouwen’s “Presbyterian Peace Fellowship Breakfast” address as recounted in Spiritual Formation: Following the Movements of the Spirit (New York: HarperOne, 2000)

F-E-A-R: has two meanings:

1. Forget Everything And Run

or

2. Face Everything And Rise

The Choice is Yours!

Happy Canada Day
