Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

This Sunday we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. The Catechism says that “the mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of Christian faith and life. It is the mystery of God in himself.” (CCC 234). Let us take a moment to reflect on how the Trinity plays such a pivotal role in our spiritual lives.

God wishes to dwell within the souls of His creatures. This is the beautiful and radical truth of our faith. St. Elizabeth of the Trinity says in her famous prayer addressed to the Trinity the following beautiful request. “Grant my soul peace. Make it your heaven, your beloved dwelling and the place of your rest. May I never abandon you there, but may I be there, whole and entire.” We are called to make a home for the Trinity within us, but how can we practically do this? Our Lord Jesus gives us the answer in John 14 where

He says: “Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them.” The answer is essentially love, which is the very foundation that stewardship rests on.

Let us fill our lives with love and charity so that our souls may be a more beautiful and blessed home for the Trinity to dwell. This knowledge of God residing in us should then be the means of strength to foster greater stewardship in our lives. Let us make our hearts a new heaven in which God may forever reign

Summary

St. Elizabeth of the Trinity famously prayed to God saying, “Grant my soul peace. Make it your heaven, your beloved dwelling and the place of your rest. May I never abandon you there, but may I be there, whole and entire.” We are called to make a home for the Trinity within us, but how can we practically do this? Our Lord Jesus gives us the answer in John 14 where He says: “Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them.”

Pope's Prayer Intention 2025

The Pope's prayer intention for 2025 addresses challenges facing humanity and assists the mission of the church. These intentions serve as principles guiding our lives and mission. In June, let us pray that each one of us might find consolation in a personal relationship with Jesus, and from his Heart, learn to have compassion on the world. – Pope Francis

Happy Father's Day

Heavenly Father, we give you thanks and praise for our fathers. On this day when we honor them, our first and best role models and our earliest spiritual guides, we ask your blessings upon them. We ask St Joseph, loving foster father of Jesus, to also bless our fathers for all the good things they have done for their children. Give our fathers grace, wisdom and patience to balance faith, family and work. Bless too, all those fathers who gone to their eternal rest. May they enjoy their heavenly peace. St Joseph pray for all fathers. Amen
